Press release

New exhibition at Buchmann Galerie:

“EMILIO VEDOVA PICCOLE SCULTURE 1970-1990”

After 1993's exhibition of Emilio Vedova's larger works at Villa Malpensata in Lugano, opening shortly in Agra is an exhibition dedicated to Vedova's output as a sculptor. Presented is in particular a very special group of his lesser-seen works, the 'small sculptures'. This is a fabulous chance for the visitor to appreciate the methods of this great artist, not least due to the sheer range of materials used in the 'small sculptures', including wood, paint, cardboard, laminates, wire, hinges etc.

During the exhibition's opening event, a new catalogue will be presented "EMILIO VEDOVA PICCOLE SCULTURE 1970-1990", which includes an interview with Fabrizio Gazzarri (director of the Archive and Collection of the Emilio and Annabianca Vedova Foundation) by Matteo Bellinelli.

This extraordinary exhibition has only been made possible thanks to the precious support and collaboration of the Emilio e Annabianca Vedova Foundation.

Buchmann Galerie Via Gamée, 6927 Agra (Collina d'Oro – Lugano), Ticino,
October 27 from 3 to 6 p.m.

After the opening reception, from October 29 the exhibition is open by appointment only until February 2013.
